Emergency Closure procedure for Stanton Harcourt School

This emergency procedure will be followed in the event of closure of school for any reason, the most obvious of which is inability to staff the school due to severe weather or loss of heating.

All those who usually receive school newsletters via Parenthub will receive notification to let them know as soon as possible in the morning - usually by about 7:40 am.

If you don't get information by email or Parenthub, the school administrator will phone you to ensure you are aware.

If we have a power cut the email system won't be possible so then it is important that you listen out for an announcement on the radio. You need to tune to this station:

BBC Radio Oxford VHF/FM 95.2

We will also attempt to put the information on the school website.

Please assume that school is open on the following day unless you receive an email or phone call from school (or the radio announces school is closed) as this procedure will be repeated daily.
